

PROCLAMATION
National Preparedness Month
September 2021

WHEREAS, National Preparedness Month, occurring annually in September since 9/11, creates an ideal opportunity for every resident of Mead, Colorado, to join citizens across the United States in preparing their homes, businesses, and communities for any type of emergency, including natural disasters and potential terrorist attacks; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Emergency Management Agency announced the 2021 National Preparedness Month theme of “Prepare to Protect. Preparing for disasters is protecting everyone you love.” and

WHEREAS, planning now, before a disaster, is the best way to improve community recovery from disasters; and

WHEREAS, when individuals take responsibility for preparing their families and their communities, the chance of survival and return to normalcy following a disaster is greatly increased; and

WHEREAS, the Town of Mead, Colorado, partners with federal, state, local, private, and volunteer agencies to educate individuals on local hazards and how to prepare for them,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Colleen Whitlow, Mayor of the Town of Mead, Weld County, Colorado, do hereby proclaim and call up on all citizens of the Town of Mead to observe the month of September 2021 as National Preparedness Month and call on all government agencies, private organizations, and the people and businesses of Mead, Colorado, to develop their own emergency preparedness plan, and work together toward creating a stronger, more resilient community.

Given under my hand and Seal of the Town of Mead, Colorado, this 30th day of August, 2021.

Colleen G. Whitlow
Mayor
