

PROCLAMATION
Declaring October 12, 2021
Farmers Appreciation Day

WHEREAS, October marks the harvest period that is the culmination of the hard labor put in by farmers across America, to ensure we all have plenty of food on our tables; and

WHEREAS, National Farmer's Day is observed on October 12th each year, during harvest season and is a day of important celebration, to give thanks to farmers past and present; and

WHEREAS, National Farmer's Day has been in existence since the early 1800's and is celebrated across the nation by paying tribute to the contributions that farmers make to our livelihoods and our economies; and

WHEREAS, a farmer's hard work and dedication has benefited our community in terms of providing safe and abundant food supply, along with their immense contributions to the national and local economies.; and

WHEREAS, farmers are fundamental to our community; and

WHEREAS, the residents of Mead recognize the benefits derived from farmers and reaffirm our commitment to and appreciation for our farmers

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY the Board of Trustees that October 12, 2021, is recognized as Farmers Appreciation Day in Mead, Colorado.

Given under my hand and Seal of the Town of Mead, Colorado
